PROFILE

After graduating from Arizona State University's Sustainability Program, Emma dove head first into a career in Real Estate. She specializes in Smart Homes and is focused on getting her Green Designation. Emma is very in tune to anything that has to do with responsible management of resources.

Emma is a Buyer Specialist and full time Listing Manager. She values educating clients through the process and helping them feel at ease. Working with a mentor and a strong team gives Emma the support to provide clients and customers the best experience. Her goal is to make a stressful process more manageable and reduce anxiety so the client can focus on what matters most, their new home. Emma's wit, authenticity, and sense of humor make her a joy to work with.
